

Use this picture to write a story!

Write a non-fiction report about a unicorn and include information about its appearance, habitat, diet and how it's adapted to its environment!

Continue this opening with a poem, story or any type of writing you like! It can be based on your own life or entirely made-up!

You may think you know the true story about Goldilocks and the Three Bears, but...